The report comes from Orlando, Florida, that one peach tree has already borne two crops of peaches this season. This phenomenal and eminently commendable effort on the part of the tree in question was notable, however, to prevent a marked stringency in the peach market.

—"Home Spun Folks" was presented by the Buchanans last night to a very large audience. The piece was new and gave entire satisfaction. Mr. Buchanan is a very clever comedian and is ably supported by a competent company of actors and actresses. To-night the great seven act drama entitled "The Two Orphans."

—A party of hunters discovered a remarkable cave near Pilot Knob, about four miles from Galena. Lord's shops being repaired and the guilty parties had better appear and pay damages. Mr. Schrader was thrown to the ground and somewhat injured.

—Some twenty five of the members of Dixon Camp No. 12, M. W. A., visited the Sterling Camp last night and received a most friendly and hearty greeting. There were some ten or twelve other camps of M. W. A. represented and all had a very pleasant evening. In the midst of the enjoyment the Sterling people reminded their Dixon visitors of their deep solicitude in the Hennepin canal, and expressed an earnest desire that THE TELEGRAPH at Dixon keep them posted in regard to its progress.

The recent meeting of the amateur athletes of the country at Washington was remarkable for the wonderful performance of John Owen, Jr., of the Detroit Athletic Club, who ran one hundred yards in 9.45 seconds. To get below the ten seconds' limit is the mark toward which all short distance runners have been directing their efforts. To cover one hundred yards in ten seconds is a great feat; to make such a record as Owen did on Saturday is an achievement which takes rank in its way, with the wonderful performances of the heroes of the trotting and racing world—of Maud S. and Salvador. Now when will the nine-second limit be reached?

We give in this paper the Republican ticket to be voted by those who desire to vote that way on Tuesday, November fourth. The ticket is composed of men well qualified to fill the offices to which they have been nominated by the party conventions and it is quite desirable that there should be a full vote polled at the coming election. No Republicans should adopt the too frequent lukewarm thought that the Republican county or State tickets will be elected whether or not his individual vote is cast; for such negligence often causes failures that years of faithful work are required to remedy. At the coming election it is particularly desirable that Republicans come to the front; not only to make "assurance doubly sure," but that the brave work of our friends in Congress during the session just closed may be fully endorsed by the people. The American Policy should be endorsed by intelligent Americans in a manner that will fully indicate to John Bull, the Cobden Club, and all European aristocrats and monopolists that they cannot dictate a policy for these United States.

Read the ticket for both county and state offices and you will find it composed of men worthy to represent you and it is your duty to endorse them. Let us have no laggards. There is no cause for "sulking in our tents" at the coming election.

—The publishers of The Century are now able to make definite announcement that they have secured for that magazine a series of articles consisting of extracts from the manuscript of one of the most famous autobiographies of our generation—the Talleyrand Memoirs, the publication of which was deferred for thirty years by the wish of Talleyrand when he died in 1838, and again postponed at the request of Napoleon III., who was permitted to examine extracts in 1866 or 1868, and who found them to conflict with his uncle's memoirs written from St. Helena.

The appearance of these Memoirs has been long looked forward to,—not only for the light they will throw upon the events of one of the most interesting of historical epochs, but for the personal opinions and experiences which they are known to contain. Talleyrand, made a prince of the empire by Napoleon, in turn leader of the clergy of France and excommunicated by the pope—president of the French assembly, an ambassador to England, friend of kings and ministers, three times foreign minister of France under three different masters—the Directory, Napoleon and Louis XVIII. (winning the post the first time by reason of his remarkable utterances upon America and her relations to the mother country, England), was without question the ablest diplomatist of an age when the art of diplomacy was at its height. It was Talleyrand who, after the defeat of Napoleon and France in 1814, succeeded, at the congress of Vienna, in breaking up the confederation of the allies and re-establishing the power of France among the nations of Europe, and who concluded the secret treaty between England, Austria and his own country.

The Memoirs, the material for which has long been in possession of the Duc de Broglie, are to appear in five volumes, and The Century will print one article from each volume in advance of the issue of the book in any country. These articles, of which the first will appear in an early number, will be accompanied with an introduction by the Hon. Whitelaw Reid, Minister of the United States to France, who will select the extracts.

—The Geneseo News comes out for George Adams good and strong and it really seems too bad that Editor Kiner does not live in Whiteside that his support might be of some benefit.

—Bro. Geo. B. Adams is running for County Clerk in Whiteside county. Bro. Adams sold his paper, the Sterling Herald, a few weeks since, and our heart has been broken since to hear of him. How can life be sweet without Adams' Herald? Bro. Adams was once a farmer. As such he ought to catch the farmer vote. After that he was a comedian in the theatrical line. This ought to catch the traveling show support. Then was an editor, which should make all the editors for him. Now he loafs around, which should catch the rest of the population that is that portion that subsists mostly on rest. George's chances are good.

"Uncle Abe, what is your idea for having the camp meeting held in another place this year?"

"Wal, sah, de chicken cholera been ragin' pow talk in de ole neighborhood."

—Seashore fun in an exchange:

"Aren't you calling at the Brownes' any more?"

"No. It isn't safe."

"Why not?"

"Her father's back and the undertone is too strong."

Look Out for the Rise in the Values of Real Estate.

Work on the canal may begin here soon; in that case values will increase wonderfully. There are few lots with good titles left for sale in the old plat of West Dixon. I have for sale several of the best of these near the college, shoe factor and street railway. Lots are selling in this locality at $10.00 12.00 per front foot. These lots will be sold for THE NEXT FEW DAYS ONLY, at the old figures, $6.00 to $9.00 per front foot they will be needed for building purposes to accommodate the new shoe factory people. They are great bargains and it is your last opportunity to get lots so near the college and factories at such low prices. Property is cheaper in Dixon to-day than in other places of the same size, and no other city of its size in the State has such advantages and prospects of future development. To secure any of the above property you must apply soon.

The Base Ball Negotiators Meet a Difficulty.

EXPERT PLAYERS WANT A VOICE.

And the Brotherhood Magnates, Knowing Who Said Voice Would Shout for, Indorse the Demand—A Rather Nervy Proposition Rejected and the Conference Goes Out of Business for a Time—The Magnates Still Hoping.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—The base ball "war" will go on if the proceedings of yesterday in the conference of the three great aggregations is any criterion; and if it does the players belonging to Brotherhood clubs will be responsible, because they insist on having their representatives admitted to the conference. As this would give the Brotherhood six members to each of the other aggregation's three, that is one reason why the latter will not consent to the arrangement. The conference met yesterday afternoon with all the original members of the committee present and Allen Thurman, of Columbus, O., presiding.

A Hitch in the Proceedings.
But in addition three other men presented themselves—John M. Ward, Arthur Irwin, and Ed Hanlon—all players, members of the Brotherhood of players. When Thurman noticed these interlopers he refused to call the meeting to order until they had retired. He said he was chairman of a committee of nine, not twelve. Johnson, the Brotherhood magnate, then explained that he had been instructed to ask six representatives for his combination, on the ground that the three League and three Brotherhood men would unite against the Brotherhood. After a hot discussion it was determined not to consider the above request until the three additional men had retired, and they filed out.

Denied the Request.
The conference then came to order and the Brotherhood request was read. Johnson moved that it be granted, and the vote was six to three in the negative, and the three Brotherhood members withdrew from the conference. They were quite emphatic in their statements that the conference was at an end, for they would not confer unless the players were given a hearing. The conference then adjourned subject to the call of the president.

Still Hoping for a Compromise.
Chances for an immediate conference seem to be dead, but peace proceedings are by no means over. It is the general opinion that it is only a question of time before the conference will be held. The National League men are firm, however, in their purpose not to confer with players. Representative players said last evening that they would take no action until they receive some word from the National League. Negotiations will now proceed quietly, and it is believed that some satisfactory conclusion will be reached in this way.

Spalding's Comments.
President A. G. Spalding said that he objected to the admission of the three players into the conference. He said that he recalled to the minds of Johnson, Talcott and McAlpin the fact that they had informed the National League men upon the former joint meeting that they had full power to act and the League had gone into the conference upon the understanding that the question of a compromise should be settled between the magnates of both organizations. The players were in the room a out fifteen minutes, during which time Ward and his colleagues made their plea for representation on the ground that "they had money invested in the game as well as we." The National League conference committee was continued, with power to act.

RICHMOND, IND., Oct. 23.—The stallion Nelson here Wednesday trotted a half-mile in 1.03.

THE OHIO LEGISLATURE.
No Hurry in the House to Pass the Governor's Measure.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 23.—The original compromise bill of the Democratic caucus, which had been amended so as to give the Cincinnati sinking fund commissioners power of appointing new members of the board of public improvements and leaving the governor power of removal, was defeated in the house yesterday. The senate bill which abolishes the present board and gives the mayor of Cincinnati power of appointment, was then read in the house the first time, after which adjournment was taken for the day. It was stated here last night with some show of authority that Speaker Hysell will resign if the bill should pass. When seen by a reporter Hysell neither affirmed nor denied the report, but said it would hardly be appropriate for a Democrat to preside over a Republican body.

Increase in the Express Tariff.
BOSTON, Oct. 23.—Mr. Waldo Adams, of the Adams Express company, yesterday confirmed the report that express rates were to be advanced Nov. 1, but declined to give any details, saying that the company would notify the public just what the tariffs are before going into effect.

A Battle Imminent in the Sudan.
CAIRO, Oct. 23.—Advices are at hand from the Sudan that a conflict between the forces of El Senoussi and those of the Mahdi is imminent at Omdurman. Both leaders have large and well equipped forces.

Looking for Somewhere Else to Buy.
BERLIN, Oct. 23.—On account of the McKinley tariff official inquiries are being made to ascertain whether goods which have hitherto been obtained from America can be imported from other countries.

The Eight-Hour Idea in Prussia.
LONDON, Oct. 23.—The Prussian ministry has agreed to introduce in the landtag a bill providing for an eight-hour work day system for the entire kingdom, and which shall affect all classes of labor.

Indorsed a Fusion Ticket.
NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—The county convention of the Business Men's Republican organization last night indorsed the municipal fusion ticket headed by Francis M. Scott for mayor.

BOTH COMING AND GOING.

All Cattle, Both Exported and Imported, To Be Inspected.

WASHINGTON CITY, Oct. 23.—The department of agriculture has issued regulations for the inspection of cattle and sheep for export. The regulations require the chief of the bureau of animal industry to cause veterinary inspection to be made of all neat cattle and sheep to be exported from the United States to Great Britain and Ireland and the continent of Europe. The inspection will be made at any of the following named stock yards: Kansas City, Mo.; Chicago, Buffalo, Pittsburg, and at the following ports of export, viz.: Boston and Charlestown, Mass.; New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Norfolk and Newport News, Virginia.

Same Way with Imports.
Regulations for the inspection and quarantine of neat cattle, sheep, and other ruminants, and swine imported into the United States were also issued. The following named ports are designated as quarantine stations: Boston, New York, Baltimore, San Diego, Brownsville, Paso del Norte, Eagle Pass, Laredo, Nogales, Apooosook, and Bangor, Me.; Cape Vincent, Champlain, and Oswegatchie, N. Y.; Vermont, Vt.; Detroit, Port Huron, and Superior, Mich.; Duluth, Minn., and Puget Sound, Wash.

Some Strict Precautions.
All cattle imported from any part of the world, except North and South America, are required to be accompanied by a statement from the local authorities of the district in which they have been for one year preceding the date of shipment, stating that no contagious pleuro-pneumonia, foot or mouth disease, or rinderpest has existed in the district for a year previous. All neat cattle imported into the United States from any part of the world, except North, Central and South America, shall be subject to a quarantine of ninety days, and all sheep and other ruminants, and swine to a quarantine of fifteen days.

A HORRIBLE DISCOVERY.

Find of a Hunter in the Backwoods of Virginia.

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., Oct. 23.—Information from Spotsylvania county says that in the neighborhood of Peaks, a few days ago, a gentleman, while hunting in the backwoods, came near a miserable hut in which it was known lived a family of negroes. He soon discerned that the air was filled with a horrible stench, and that buzzards sat around in the trees near the house. On investigation the bodies of two negro boys, in a decomposed state, were found in the hut.

They Had Fought to the Death.
It seems that they had fought several days previous, and one of them had killed the other, while from wounds the other had received death resulted. A child in this hut had its collar-bone broken and was in a critical condition. Another made child who was ill was so cruelly bandaged by the woman who had been in charge that the little fellow was suffering horribly when discovered. The negroes in charge of the children have been arrested and will be tried as being parties to the crime.

BRUTAL MURDER AND ROBBERY.

A Resident of Des Plaines, Ill., Killed in His Own Barn.

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—Matthew Brazell, a well-known resident of Des Plaines, Ill., was brutally beaten to death Tuesday night. Shortly after 9 o'clock a neighbor passing Brazell's residence was attracted by the sound of groans in the vicinity of the barn. On investigating he found Mr. Brazell lying bleeding on the barn floor, his head crushed almost beyond recognition. He rallied enough to mutter, "Tramps killed," and died soon after assistance arrived. From his family it was learned that he had $700 in his pocket, and the condition of his clothing showed he had been robbed.

The President Wants to Vote.

WASHINGTON CITY, Oct. 23.—President Harrison desires to go home to vote next month but it is doubtful whether he can do so, on account of the pressure of executive business at Washington. A number of important matters will come up for discussion in the cabinet meetings during the next fortnight, and it will be difficult to postpone their consideration. The probability is that the president will manage it in some way so as to go to the Indianapolis polls, but he has not yet decided the question.

Governor Hill at Wooster, O.

WOOSTER, O., Oct. 23.—The Democratic mass-meeting here last night addressed by Governor D. B. Hill, of New York, was attended by a crowd estimated at from 5,000 to 6,000 people. The audience was particularly pleased by a few words from John G. Warrick, Democratic opponent of Maj. McKinley, who had never spoken before during this canvass, giving the Republicans the opportunity to say that he didn't know how to make a speech.

Largest Bridge in Europe.

VIENNA, Oct. 23.—The first stone of the bridge which is destined to be the largest in Europe has been laid by the king of Roumania. The bridge is to cross the Danube river at Tchernavodlar, and will be used by a new railroad line, considerably shortening the distance between the northern countries and the Black sea.

Liberals Win the Eccles Election.

LONDON, Oct. 23.—In the parliamentary election which took place in the Eccles division of southeast Lancashire yesterday, Roby, the Gladstonian candidate, was returned by a vote of 4,901 to 4,696 for Mr. Egerton, Conservative. Roby favored the legal establishment of an eight-hour day, and that is what elected him.

Police Raid the Betting Clubs.

LIVERPOOL, Oct. 23.—Just prior to the running of the race for the Cambridge-shire stakes at the Newmarket Houghton Wednesday, the police raided the betting clubs in this city. Three hundred persons, including a number of prominent citizens, were arrested.

Robbed a Rothschild.

PARIS, Oct. 23.—It has been learned that while on a journey recently the Baroness Alphonse Rothschild was robbed of jewelry to the value of 60,000 francs. The efforts of the police to catch the thieves and recover the stolen property has so far been unsuccessful.

Making It Safe for the Czar.

LONDON, Oct. 23.—As a result of the recently reported attempts upon the life of the czar, all of the palaces and many of the official buildings, as well as the public squares and parks of St. Petersburg, have been closed to the people.

BEATS JOHNSTONE.

A Safe-Opening Feat That Takes the Cake.

SOME COUNTY OFFICIALS AMAZED.

A 16-Year-Old-Boy Whose Ears Would Be a Bonanza for a Burglar—He Simply Listens at the Lock of a Burglar-Proof Safe and Opens It in Less Than Five Minutes—Ten Dollars Easily Earned.

ST. LOUIS CITY, S. D., Oct. 23.—Mind Reader Johnstone's feat of opening a Chicago hotel safe was outdone in this city Tuesday afternoon by a 16-year-old boy, Ed M. Sanders. The county officials have just taken possession of the new court house, and young Sanders has been at work in the building as a plumber's assistant. Tuesday afternoon County Treasurer Swenson, Chairman McKee, and a number of other county officials were in the treasurer's room, and were congratulating themselves that the county had now a burglar-proof vault, which would defy all attempts to open it. Young Sanders happened along, and made the remark that he could open the safe himself. Chairman McKee smiled at the young man's bluff, and offered to make him a present of $5 if he would open the safe.

Too Busy to Do It for Five.

The young man replied that he was too busy at that time to undertake the job. Mr. McKee offered to increase the amount to $10, whereupon the young man accepted. The young man then left the room and County Treasurer Swenson proceeded to close the vault doors and to securely lock them. The youthful imitator of Johnstone was brought in and set about his task. He asked all present to keep very quiet, and placing his ear against the door of the safe, commenced operations. His sensitive ear caught every fall of the tumbler, and in five minutes the young man, with a smile on his face, threw open the vault door. The $10 was handed him and the county commissioners will insist upon the safe company taking out the vault, as the company had guaranteed the vault to be perfectly burglar proof.

NOVELTY IN CASH BOXES.

A Large Sum of Money Brought from Russia to America in a Coffin.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—During the war, when gold was very high, George W. Hughes, who had accumulated a considerable fortune, died in Russia, and his widow came to this country with most of his estate in her possession. Mrs. Hughes did not know how to convey her cash to America without being robbed, and so she hit upon an ingenious plan which prevented evil disposed persons from annoying her. She converted about $100,000 of the cash into gold doubloons, and had them packed safely in a coffin. She took passage with the coffin for New York, and it was supposed on shipboard that in the coffin were the remains of her husband.

Rather Rough on the Widow.

Arriving in this country Mrs. Hughes converted the doubloons into United States bonds and other securities, which at that time were very low in the market. Then she went to Paterson, N. J., where she was married to the Rev. E. M. Weiss, who is now a justice of the peace in that city. Shortly after her marriage the will of her late husband arrived in this country, and it was found that nearly the whole of his estate had been left to some children of the brothers of the deceased. Proceedings in the interest of the heirs were at once begun.

Help for Agricultural Colleges.

WASHINGTON CITY, Oct. 23.—Yesterday the secretary of the interior signed certificates for the amount of $15,000 each, appropriated for the present fiscal year in aid of agricultural and mechanical colleges in the following states, among others: Indiana, Michigan, Illinois, and Wisconsin. Another installment is already due, but the secretary is determined not to certify the amount until the country knows the state of the law and action taken, so that if any objections are to be made they will be made without delay and before any further money is expended.

Illinois F. M. B. A. Officers.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 23.—The state assembly of the F. M. B. A. yesterday elected the following officers: President Cicero J. Lindly, of Bond county; vice president, J. H. Washburn, of Williamson county; secretary, W. E. Robinson, of Bond county; treasurer, James Creed, of Marion county; executive committee, E. S. Wilson, of Olney; G. W. Wickline, of Washington county, and N. M. Barnett, of DeWitt county.

Reed Speaks at Burlington, Ia.

BURLINGTON, Ia., Oct. 23.—Speaker Reed left Peoria at 7:40 yesterday morning. The train made stops at Elmwood and Galesburg, where Mr. Reed made brief speeches to the crowds in waiting. Arriving in this city, Mr. Reed was met by ex-Governor Gear and a committee, who escorted the speaker to Governor Gear's residence, where he dined. At 2 o'clock in the afternoon Mr. Reed delivered a speech at the new Opera house.

Fitting It to Changed Conditions.

ROME, Oct. 23.—The pope yesterday gave audience to the archbishop of Bahia and conferred with him in regard to a programme fixing the status of the Roman Catholics of Brazil. The archbishop demanded for the Brazilian Catholics a degree of liberty similar to that enjoyed by the Catholics of North America, which the pope promised to grant.

Overrun with Rabbits.

STAMFORD, Conn., Oct. 21.—The farmers of Connecticut are so much troubled by rabbits eating up their grain that they have been compelled to kill them off with strychnine. Druggists say that there is a steady demand for the poison from the farmers, who complain of the devastation created on their farms by rabbits.

The Count at the Falls.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Oct. 23.—The Comte de Paris' party visited all the principal points of interest on both the Canadian and American sides of the river. The party left this morning for Kingston, where they take a yacht for the Thousand Islands.

Sentenced to Prison for Life.

KILLED ON THE RAIL

Eight Persons Lose Their Lives and Many Are Injured.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 23.—Yesterday morning at 2 o'clock a collision occurred in the tunnel on the Cincinnati Southern road, a few miles south of Somerset, Ky., and the result was the death of six men, two of them, a postal clerk and an express messenger, being burned alive. The dead are: C. L. Doegen, postal clerk; the following were injured: Engineer Pine-lott, Engineer Taylor, Postal Clerk Gayle, Miss Allie Gettis, Dayton, Tenn., a museum freak; Arch. Murphy, Madison county, Indiana, and R. A. Wheeler, New Orleans. One of the engineers moved without orders, causing the disaster.

Two Hurried to Eternity.

BIRMINGHAM Ala., Oct. 23.—There was a terrible wreck on the Kansas City, Memphis and Birmingham railway late Tuesday night just outside of this city. Two passenger trains collided through a misunderstanding and the result was that J. D. Franklin, traveling passenger agent, Nashville, Tenn., and Joe K. Kirtland, fireman, were killed, nine passengers dangerously, and twenty-three slightly, hurt. Those dangerously wounded were: George W. Davis, Shell-mound, Tenn.; Mrs. W. F. Wagner, Greenville, S. C.; J. E. Owens, Westfield, N. C.; J. W. Fennell, New Orleans, La.; H. C. Smith, Jasper, Ala.; I. O. Franklin, Nashville, Tenn.; J. A. Taylor, Magnolia, Ark.; head smashed and eye knocked out; W. C. Burton, Cardova, Ala., scalded and badly mangled; J. A. Beard, Navor, Ala., internally hurt.

A Fog Caused This One.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 23.—Yesterday morning about 7:30 two passenger trains came into rear-end collision, owing to a thick fog, just west of Armourdale, and Pat Cullen, engineer of a Rock Island train, was probably fatally injured. Seven others were more or less hurt, those receiving the most serious injuries being John Cuff, fireman, severely; Edward Jackson, colored porter, both legs broken; John Driscoll, Conasa, Kan., left leg broken below the knee; C. J. Avery, Springfield, Ill., special census agent, back hurt and bruised about the body.

Killed Four at a Crossing.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 23.—A special to The Constitution from Rome says: A terrible accident occurred on the line of the Chattanooga, Rome and Columbus railroad yesterday morning. Four persons were killed three instantly, the fourth dying shortly afterward. A south-bound passenger train ran over a covered wagon at a crossing near Chickamauga, and killed J. W. Jenkins, his wife and baby and Mrs. James Bowman, all of Walker county.

Another Fatal Collision.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 23.—By a tail-end collision between two freights on the New Haven and Derby railroad, near Round Hill, yesterday morning, Fireman George Norton was seriously, and perhaps fatally injured. The engine of the rear train and several cars were badly wrecked.

A REGULAR FIRE FIEND.

Belle Rafferty Achieves a Bad Endurance For Arson.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 23.—A letter has been received from the chief of police of Memphis asking for information concerning Belle Rafferty, who is now under arrest in Memphis charged with arson. Mrs. Rafferty, in 1886, lived in this city, and had a heavy insurance on her goods. Her house burned down, and she was arrested on the same charge on which she is now held in Memphis, indicted, tried and acquitted. Her subsequent career was a warm one. In 1887, she moved to Honey Grove, Tex., in 1889, but the alias of Mrs. J. McDonald brought her no better luck, and her house was burned down again. As Mrs. Belle McDonald she lost a house by fire in Cincinnati in October of the same year, and last December, as Mrs. Emma Curtis, her house in St. Louis fell a victim to the flames.

He Bounced 'Old Hutch'.

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—Mr. B. P. Hutchinson, the celebrated manager of corners in grain, was in Gore's hotel saloon Tuesday night where one of those present became rather belligerent, and refusing to be quiet when requested by the barkeeper, was put out of the saloon. Mr. Hutchinson, so the papers here say, was very indignant at the treatment of his acquaintance and turned himself loose on the barkeeper, giving him a terrific raking down. Barkeep stood it awhile, and then "fired" the great operator bodily into the alley. Opinions differ—some of those present say the barkeeper did right, others condemn him.

Billings Out on Bail.

INDEPENDENCE, Ia., Oct. 23.—M. E. Billings had a hearing before Judge Ney at a late hour Tuesday night. Charles Mullin, of Waterloo, represented the state. After a brief discussion Billings was bound over in $5,000 to appear on Nov. 8 at the Waterloo session of court. He was released on his own recognizance.

Caught Prying Up the Rails.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 23.—In addition to the attempt to derail the Milwaukee and St. Paul train at Mosby Tuesday morning the miscreants tried to cause a wreck on the Burlington. A gang of men were caught at Liberty, Mo., prying up the rails on the tracks.

Will Take the Colors to Moltke.

BERLIN, Oct. 23.—The emperor has ordered that the colors of all regiments in Berlin be brought to the residence of Count von Moltke on Sunday. This distinction has never before been accorded to a German subject.

A Variation in the Row.

ATLANTA, Oct. 23.—Governor Gordon has received from the sheriff of Coffee county a call for troops to suppress a riot of negroes against negroes. It is reported that four men have been killed.

A Little Fight Near Suakim.

SUAKIM, Oct. 23.—One hundred der-vishes, who were raiding cattle yesterday, were attacked by the Egyptian cavalry. Seven der-vishes were killed and a number were taken prisoners.

THE SON OF A MERCHANT PRINCE

Marries the Daughter of a Millionaire Maltster—Marshall Field, Jr., and Miss Albertina Huck Joined for Life by Archbishop Feehan—A Quiet Affair in Spite of the Prominence of the Couple and Their Relatives.

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—The marriage of Marshall Field, Jr., only son of Chicago's merchant prince, and Miss Albertina Huck, daughter of L. C. Huck, president of the L. C. Huck Maltster company, took place at the residence of Marshall Field, 1935 Prairie avenue, at noon today. The ceremony was notable, not only on account of the standing of the two families, but from the fact that it was unusually quiet, none but the immediate relatives residing in Chicago attending.

At 12 o'clock Florence Field, the little sister of the groom, and Master Eddie Ream, the son of Norman B. Ream, led the bridal party into the front parlor, scattering flowers in the path of the bride.

Music was a Feature.

The marriage ceremony was solemnized by the Rt. Rev. Archbishop Feehan. During the ceremony the cathedral choir, a double quartette, composed of Mrs. A. Doney, Miss Kate Coffey, Miss Kittie Wallace Davis, Miss Clayton F. Summy, P. Gleason, F. A. Langlois, A. Gaston Gottschalk, and Dr. Thomas M. Mendson, sang the nuptial chorus from "Lohengrin" and "God Bless Ye and Guard Ye." The accompaniment was played by H. C. Beseler, the organist of the cathedral; Mme. Chatterton, the harpist, and Adolphe Rosenbecker, the well-known Chicago violinist. There was also a solo by Mrs. Doney, who sang Gounod's "Ave Maria."

Very Plain Costumes.

Miss Mary Huck, sister of the bride, acted as maid of honor, while Ethel Field was bridesmaid. Arthur Tree was best man for the groom and John Holland was usher.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served under the direction of L. C. Sherry, the well-known fashionable caterer of New York. The dress of the bride was very plain, being of white satin with court train, trimmed with a small border of orange blossoms. She wore no ornaments. Her traveling dress of brown cashmere with a narrow strip of gray trimming. Mrs. Marshall Field wore a plain dress of lilac velvet and no ornaments.

Numerous Beautiful Presents.

Among the numerous presents received are a complete set of solid silver knives, forks, and spoons from Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schuttler; solid silver dinner set, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Field; silver vegetable set, Cyrus Hall McCormick; gold and silver coffee set, Mrs. Edison Keith; gold sugar and tea spoon, Miss Bertha Dibble; gold salad dish, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dibble; Etruscan vase, Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Sprague; silver ten-set, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman D. James; French marble clock, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Field, and an earthen flower vase from Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mack.

Off on a Wedding Tour.

The hallways and parlors were beautiful with tropical plants and potted flowers. At 5 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Field will leave on the limited for New York, from which place they will sail Saturday for Europe, where they will spend two or three years in study. The steamer on which they will sail is the Lahn, and is held in pleasant memory from the fact that it was upon its decks that Mr. Field and Miss Huck first met.

THE IRISH LEAGUE IS HARD UP.

Tory Tactics to Force a Fight with a Crippled Enemy.

LONDON, Oct. 23.—Letters and telegrams from Dublin published in the London papers represent the Irish National league as more closely pressed for money than had been suspected. The special collections taken in the churches will not more than defray the ordinary expenses of the league, which are now being largely increased owing to the numerous recent and impending evictions. It is asserted by Timothy Harrington and other prominent league leaders that increased activity of the landlords at this juncture is in pursuance of a concerted plan to embarrass the league at a time when it is believed to be straitened for funds, by throwing upon it for support a much larger number of evicted tenants.

A Plan to Embarrass the League.

The number to be supported has certainly greatly increased of late, while the funds, with the closest economy of administration, admittedly hardly met the expenditure. Should this continue, it is said, a general election, which the government might at any favorable moment precipitate, would find the Home Rule party disabled in advance of the encounter.

A Corner in Broom Corn.

ARCOLA, Ill., Oct. 23.—Broom corn raisers of this vicinity are taking active steps with a view to building large storage warehouses in which to hold their brush when the prices are too low to be profitable. The movement is in the shape of a combine to escape from what they call the oppression and misrepresentation of middlemen, and it is proposed that the farmer who holds any amount of stock in the warehouse shall be allowed to store his crop and draw from the association funds a reasonable advance upon it per ton, while the stock will be held for good prices.

She Was Brutally Ungrateful.

NORFOLK, Conn., Oct. 23.—Mrs. Elmina Taylor, of Wilton, aged 86, was worth from $12,000 to $15,000 a year ago, but in an evil hour she transferred her property to her niece, Miss Esther White. Since then the aged lady has been deprived of the common necessities of life. So inhumanly has she been treated that the Humane society was notified by the neighbors, and R. N. Morehouse, the local agent, found that matters were even worse than represented. The old lady is in such a condition that she will probably die before the week ends.

Wants To Be a Senator.

CONCORD, N. H., Oct. 23.—Friends of Governor Goodell authorize the announcement that he will be a candidate for United States senator at the next session of the legislature.

THURMAN ADMIRES PUGILISM

The Old Roman in Ecstasies Over His Grandson's Apparent Prowess.

Lee Thurman, a grandson of the "Old Roman," played center field for Columbus during the exhibitions at Newark and Zanesville. He is a member of the University of Virginia team.

It was always Allen G. Thurman's ambition to see his grandson an All athlete, and though he worshiped the boy as only a grandfather can, he was occasionally punctilious to a galling degree about his studies. The Roman's conception of studies was rather Greek, and at that they suggested a penchant for the Spartan school rather than that of Athens. Mathematics, classics, literature, ethics, logic and all the other sciences and ologies might go for all he cared, but he swore by the nine gods and the United States of America that the boy's athletic education should never be neglected as long as old Allen had a law practice and a leg to stand upon.

When the boy got into his teens it tickled the progenitorial heart to see how willingly he applied himself to his so called studies, and with the object of still further facilitating the youth he sought around among the precincts of Columbus for a fit and proper tutor. At that time old Bob Farrel was running a gymnasium in the town.

"Can you make an athlete out of my grandson, professor?" asked the "Old Roman."

"I can, sir," promptly responded the ex-prize fighter.

"Make him able to lick any one of his size, eh?"

"Lick anything as walks, sir," said Billy.

Young Lee was entered as a pupil at once, and remained in the institution for some time. One day about three months later the boy came home pretty early, and his grandfather inquired how he was getting along with his studies.

"Oh, pretty fairly, sir," said the youngster.

"Can you box, eh?"

"A bit, sir."

"Can you give an upper cut, eh?"

"Think so, sir."

"An under cut, eh? Now, don't try to deceive me. Can you give an under cut, eh?"

"Oh, I think so, sir."

"What about a swing? Now, it's no good attempting to prevaricate. Can you give a swing, sir?"

"Yes, sir."

"And fetch him under the chin with your right?"

But though to every question the youngster responded in the affirmative the "Old Roman" was as doubtful as Thomas the apostle.

"You will have to prove what you say," said he. "Put on your hat and we'll go down to the gymnasium."

Arrived at the professor's academy Mr. Thurman ordered the tutor to put on the gloves with the pupil, and then told them to blaze away.

Bob Farrel shivered on the horns of a dilemma. If he licked the boy the old gentleman would swear he had not taught him to defend himself. If the boy licked him the Roman would think he was not a competent instructor.

The fight began with the proprietor on the defensive. The boy gave an opening which Bob let pass without attempting to take, in a vain hope that the grandfather thought not see.

"You idiot!" roared the old man, "why didn't you catch him that time? Hit him in the neck, there, Lee! Smash his jaw for him! Booraw, boys! Give it him, there, professor!"

Farrel bowed over the boy with a right hander in the mouth and the Roman went into ecstasies. He went over to the youth and warned him.

"Hit high, my boy," said he, "hit high. His face guard is weak. Knock his face out."

The contestants closed again. Bob got in one on the boy's neck and he winced.

"Why didn't you return on his nose?" roared the lawyer.

The next chance he got—and Bob slyly gave him plenty—he touched the professor's nose and the claret spurted freely.

"Glorious, my son!" shrieked the grandfather. "Give him another like that! Glorious, my boy! You're your own father's son. Glorious!"

Another opening and Lee got in on his tutor's neck and the professor dropped like a felled bullock. He simply refused to be revived; nothing they could do would pull him together.

"He's knocked out stuffin' out er me!" he moaned, whereat the Roman hugged his grandson. Well, Bob Farrel faked through his faint to the intense joy of all parties, and when he came around the "Old Roman" gave his boy's tutor $10.

There was no happier man in the state of Ohio that day than Allen G. Thurman, and a big load was lifted off the old ex-prize fighter's heart.—Cincinnati Times-Star.

Beggs' German Salve.

The increasing demand for Beggs' German Salve not only proves that it has merit, but also makes it almost a universal household remedy. When you wish a good reliable ointment call for Beggs' German Salve, and you will not be disappointed. Sold and warranted by D. S. HORTON, Druggist.

A Strange Case.

Had Mrs. H. A. Gardiner, of Vistula Ind., lived two thousand years ago, she would have been thought to have been possessed by evil spirits. She was subject to nervous prostration, headaches, dizziness, backache, palpitation and forty to fifty spasms a day. Though having been treated by eight physicians for years without success, she was permanently cured by one bottle of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. A trial bottle of this new and wonderful medicine, and a finely illustrated treatise free at Tillson & Hayden's Drug Store who recommends and guarantees it. 1

Ask Your Friend About It.

Your distressing cough can be cured. We know it because Kemp's Balsam within the past few years has cured so many coughs and colds in this community. Its remarkable sale has been won entirely by its genuine merit. Ask some friend who has used it what he thinks of Kemp's Balsam. There is no medicine so pure, none so effective. Large bottles 50c and $1.00 at all druggists. Sample bottle free. 2

Marvelous Endurance.

The vast amount of labor performed by the heart in keeping all portions of the body supplied with blood is not generally known. It beats 100,000 times and forces the blood at the rate of 168 miles a day, which is 3,000,000 times and 5,150,880 miles in a life time. No wonder there are so many HEART FAILURES. The first symptoms are shortness of breath when exercising, pain in side of stomach, fluttering, choking in throat, oppression, then following weak, hungry or smothering spells, swollen ankles. C. Dr. Franklin Miles' NEW HEART CURE is the only reliable remedy. Sold by Tillson & Hayden. 1

A MODEL RAILWAY.

The Burlington Route, C. B. & Q. R., operates 7,000 miles of road, with termini in Chicago, St. Louis, Omaha, Kansas City and Denver. For speed, safety, comfort, equipment, track and efficient service it has no equal. The Burlington gains new patrons, but loses none. 2019 10784f

Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills.

An important discovery. They act on the liver, stomach and bowels through the nerves. A new principle. They speedily cure biliousness, bad taste, torpid liver, piles and constipation. Splendid for men, women and children. Smallest, mildest, surest. 30 doses for 25 cents. Sample free at Tillson Hayden's. 1

He Yelled Kemp's Balsam.

I yell "Take Kemp's Balsam, the best cough cure." I always do when I hear a man cough, and I can't help it. It saved me and it will cure you. I was threatened with pneumonia last winter and it broke it up. It helps the children out when their throats are sore, cures their coughs, and tastes so good. The first dose helps you. So writes A. R. Arnold, engineer on the West Shore Ry., at Canajoharie, New York.

Dr. J. H. Couster, of Peo ia, Ill.,

a well known Specialist in Diseases of the Nose, Throat and Chest, in a paper on "Medication in Chest Diseases," says: "One of the most potent factors in producing the bad results so often seen following ordinary coughs and colds, is the use of the hundreds of 'syrups,' 'mixtures,' etc., which are foisted and forced upon an indulgent and confiding public. These, almost without exception, contain some form of opium, or some other equally poisonous drug, which by their action, checks the elimination of the offending secretions—thus obviating the very object to be attained in all such conditions.

Prof. H. F. Bitner, a noted chemist, of Millersville, Pa., says in a paper: "It is probable that many deaths occur, especially among the infants, by the use of such opiates as 'syrups,' 'nurses drops,' 'cordials,' 'preservatives,' and the like."

This is one of the great merits of Reid's German Cough and Kidney Cure. It contains no opiates or poison, but is innocuous. It can be given in any dose without the slightest danger, although it is better to take a small dose and repeat it often. It acts at once, and will stop the worst cold. It is thus invaluable in case of croup. After the paroxysm is checked and the little sufferer has gone to sleep, the mother need not be alarmed for fear that the after affect will be fatal. There is nothing in Reid's German Cough and Kidney Cure to give anyone alarm, and the child will wake in the morning, not only relieved for the time being, but better able to resist the attack of croup the next time. In this particular, Reid's German Cough and Kidney Cure is unrivaled in excellence, in safety and in certainty.

Successful Rebellion.

Mrs. Melrose was famed throughout the country neighborhood for her decided opinions and emphatic expression of them, and her husband, "good, easy man," was equally famous for his absolute docility in following her lead. Only once was he known to protest against her mode of government, and this momentary rebellion was mild, like himself. A slight difference of opinion had arisen between them about bringing up a calf which had lost its mother.

"It's got a splendid white star in the forehead, and we'll keep it," said Mrs. Melrose cheerfully.

"It's an awful job to feed it," murmured her husband, who knew well that the whole duty of teaching it to drink from a coffee pot would devolve upon him.

"Nonsense! it won't take half an hour, morning, noon and night."

"I've tried it before, Mirandy, and I know!"

"And I know a good calf when I see one. Silas, that animal has got to be kept, and one of us has got to feed it. If you'd rather have me do it while you wash up the dishes and do the bakin', well and good, but somehow it's got to be done."

"Oh, dear," groaned the old gentleman, as he meekly began tying a cloth to the nose of the coffee pot for the medium of the calf's first meal, "sometimes I wish you wasn't so set, Mirandy!"

"When I do put my foot down," announced Miranda complacently, "it means something."

"The trouble ain't that you put your foot down," said Mr. Melrose, with unexpected tartness. "All I have to complain of is that you never know when to take it up again."

And so struck was his wife with the force of this remark that next morning she said gently:

"Silas, I've been thinkin' mebbe the calf had better be sold."—Youth's Companion.
